

Pretty hats top off a day of style and glamour at Penang Turf Club

By HAN KAR KAY
 hankk@thestar.com.my
 Photos by CHIN CHENG YEANG

WOMEN in pretty, eye-catching hats and in their finest frocks were the centre of attraction at the Penang Turf Club's (PNTC) Sprint Trophy Ladies' Day 2011. The turnout saw socialites, foreign guests and invited lady guests, vying for the Linney's Best Dressed competition award.

To add to the electrifying affair, the guests were entertained to fashion shows and music. The best dressed winner was Australian Sarah Smith, 28, who wore a beautiful black-and-white hat with feathers and an elegant sequined dress.

She was all smiles after receiving a Linney's 18-carat white gold pendant with an Australian South Sea pearl and white diamonds.

"With a little help from my friends, I spent two weeks picking out the right dress and rounded it up with a matching hat.

"It is indeed a surprise win for me because my intention was to merely have fun at this event," said Smith, who is from Perth.

Second prize winner was surgeon Teoh Mei Shi, 38, who looked resplendent in her rose print satin dress and a matching rose-themed hat.

Stunning: (Clockwise from above) A fashion show during the event; Tricia Mcleod is placed fifth, while Evelyn Lee is sixth in the Linney's Best Dressed competition.

Teoh walked away with an 18-carat yellow gold diamond and South Sea golden pearl pendant.

"I only spent a few days to prepare for the event, and I took my friends' advice to match the rose-themed hat with the dress," she said.

Datin Jessica H'ng impressed the judges with her hat which had a small fabric rose adorned with feathers. She walked away with an 18-carat white gold French hook earrings which had Australian South Sea pearls and white diamonds.

More than 70 PNTC members and foreign guests enjoyed sumptuous food and lively music at the event held at the club last Sunday.

Guests were also dazzled by the fashion shows by designers Brandon Tan and Randy Goh

The flowing couture gowns, sensual evening dresses and sophisticated accessories worn by the models during the fashion show drew loud applause from the guests.

The sponsors for the Ladies' Day Event were Da Ma Cai and Linney's.

Other sponsors included William Inglis and Son Ltd, Lancome, SanRitz, Brandon Tan, Randy Goh and Carlo Rino.

To be continued... (mirrored text from reverse side of page)